reason some people don't have them.

Wm. J. McNeil, of Melvin, and Walter a new Alligator Haypress and begin pressing around Melvin shortly.

The Administrator's sale of the land from Nov. 4, as first advertised, to Nov.

18, 1899.

A friend suggests that numerous weddings is a sure sign of good times.
The reverse may be true. A young man may be thinking of the blizzards to be, and is simply searching for a place to board with a father-in-law whose woodpile is large.

We notice by the Armada Graphic that Dr. Gowan, of Berville, will give up the practice of medicine for a time on account of ill health. The Dr.'s friends in Yale will be sorry that it has become necessary for him to give up his business. He has not been in the best of health for some time.

The Bay View Reading Circle will hold their first meeting at the home of Mrs. E. R. Beecher on Monday next.
Ten or twelve have given in their names as members and several more are considering the matter. All who are interested are cordially invited to attend the meeting on Monday evening.

Wm. Moore, who has resided near Brookway for several years, has moved to Yale and is now at home to friends in the house he bought of N. Holden.
We have always known that Will had good sense, but we are glad to have it shown by his choosing Yale for a home.
Years of toil have given himself and wife the right to settle down with quiet, honest and goodlooking people.

C. E. Lowrey, having rented his large farm in west Brookway, will try the merits of California climate for a few years. Mr. Lowrey is one of our most prosperous and substantial farmers, and the queer thing to us is that neither love or lightning has as yet struck him. Perhaps it is only earthquakes that is sufficient to make him look out for a helpmate, and who knows what kind of a shaking up he may get from the crust quivers where he is going.

It will not be a surprise to any who are at all familiar with the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, to know that people everywhere take pleasure in relating their experience in the use of that splendid medicine and in telling of the benefits they have received from it, of bad colds it has cured, of threatened attacks of pneumonia it has averted and of the children it has saved from attacks of croup and whooping cough. It is a grand, good medicine. For sale by Staley & McKeith.

A Recorder reporter met Alex Mc-Coll on the street Tuesday morning and being struck by his dignified appearance, tried to draw him into conversation to learn the reason thereof.
The attempt proved a failure as Alex's mind was so far above earthly matters that he could spare no time on ordinary people. Later in the day, however, he got nearer terra firma and informed us that he was the proud father of a bouncing boy which arrived that morning. Of course he bought the cigars for all his friends. Mother and child are both doing well and the doctor has hopes for Alex if nothing more serious arises.—Deckerville Recorder.

every day excepting Saturday. Having wife ordered and go home ere it is too late—and your wife says her piece.

We were shown a few days ago, some fine specimens of flax fibre made by the new process. Mr. McColl informed us that the new method made the flax so pliable that it could be worked on cotton machinery. If this proves to be a success, the world will soon enjoy the luxury of fine underwear made of flax.
That being the case, the kingship of cotton will have a mighty big rival.

Mrs. Wm. Sommers died at Melvin Monday and was buried from the M.
E. Church on the 8th instant. Rev.
Wm. Smith officiating. The funeral was a very large one, and the remains were laid to rest in Melvin cemetery.
Mrs. Sommers had been sick for some time with nervous prostration and her illness and death elicited the tender sympathy of the entire community for the deeply afflicted friends.
The deceased was a sister of Mrs. C. B.
Hungerford of this place.

Our ever famous, always-on-hand-and-handy Male Quartette are home again covered with glory. This time they picked their laurels in Richmond where they went to take a part in an entertainment. We know the citizens of that town can appreciate a good thing, and we know our boys had the stuff to fill the bill.

Prospective occupiers and building contractors are very anxious that this mild weather continue. Never in the history of Yale has there been so many buildings in process of erection, and never were workmen so difficult to get.
What causes still more annoyances is the fact that material cannot be obtained without weeks of delay, owing to rush of orders at the factories. This means that many other towns than ours have building booms. There is no rose without a thorn, and even good times have embarrassing features.

powders, and everything in this line at Grant

AMONG OUR ADVERTISERS.

Putney & Chamberlain.
Over the door of the brick building on the corner of Main and Wood streets is the sign of Putney & Chamberlain.
This firm, as now constituted, has conducted business in this place for more than four years, and before that date, the firm name read Chamberlain, Putney & Co. From the foregoing it will be gathered that the above firm are no new comers in our town, and are no here-to-day and some-where-else-to-morrow concern. They have planted themselves to stay, and grow into the confidence of their many patrons, and their success has proved the wisdom of their plan. It is the other and more sales that are to follow today's trade that they wish to secure, and hence the dealing, as well as their words, is all on that come see us again line. This store is filled with goods to supply their patron's wants—up stairs, down stairs, and in the cellar. If you have gone elsewhere and found other firms "just out" of what you must have right away quick, just try Putney & Chamberlain. And you need not tell them we sent you there, for their prices are not cut to fit persons, but actual values. The firm believes in letting the public know what they have to offer and carry a one-third page standing advertisement in The Expositor which is acknowledged by them to be a drawing card of no minor importance.

The head name of this firm, Mr.
Frank Putney, has long been known in Yale and vicinity, and is the honored secretary and head push of Yale's Business Men's Association. Though young in years he has already achieved success and mastered mercantile methods. And he has built around him more than a wall of general store goods—the solid safeguard of confidence based on experience of past dealings. He has associated with him Miss Mary Chamberlain, the second in the firm name. Miss Chamberlain fills the want of every general store—a lady who knows how to supply the wants of her lady friends. We wonder that long ago the business world has not recognized the need and utility of having lady members in their firms.

Andrew Alward has the contract for daring the mason work on the Catholic parsonage. He is pushing the work as is also the other contractors, and it will not be long ere Rev. Cullinane will be at home in the finest parsonage in this region. Others besides the good pastor will enjoy the home, for it is a very artistic and commodious structure, and can be pointed to with pride by every citizen of Yale and vicinity. All praise is due the pastor and his plucky people. With Andrew on the one side and John Schram at the other to boss the work, we may be sure that when it is finished it will stand the tests of time and usage.

Question Answered.

Yes, August Flower has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers' and grandmothers' never thought of using anything else for indigestion or Biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration or Heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undig-ested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches.
You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. Sample bottles at Grant Holden's drug store.

PALMER--BECKTON.

Again has our little city been invaded and one of our fair daughters has been carried from our midst. Since the captivity is one of love, and the captor one of Caro's handsome and first young men and the captive was charmed with her captivity, we forgive the offense. This happy event occurred at the residence of the bride's parents, in Yale, Mr. and Mrs. Wm.
Palmer, where on Wednesday, Nov. 8, 1899, their eldest daughter, Miss Jennie was united in marriage to Mr.
Joseph Beckton.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Paton, in the presence of a goodly company of relatives and friends. Fred T. Palmer, brother of the bride acted as groomsmen, and Miss McKeller, of Port Huron, acted the part of bridesmaid.

The bride was arrayed for the occasion in a most tasteful traveling costume, and the groom in regulation attire. The supper table, to which the guests were conducted after the ceremony was filled with all that is most tempting in the way of viands, and was most beautifully adorned with primrose and pink carnation flowers.
The feast was indeed a festival for both mind and body.

The happy couple took the 7:37 train for Saginaw and other northern points, after an extended tour they will be at home to their friends in Caro. The bride is well known in this region, and is one of our loved and respected young ladies, and she bears with her to the new home with her husband the well wishes and congratulations of the whole community.

The groom is one of Caro's successful and rising business men, and has provided a home in that city for his newly made wife.

The guests who attended the foregoing nuptials did not go empty handed but bore abundant pledges of their love in a vast array of appropriate and elegant wedding gifts.

Those from a distance who attended the wedding were Georgia Mitts, of Detroit; Irving Mitts, of Port Huron; Mrs. J. W. Lindow, of Marine City; Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Johnson, of Sarnia; Estella Aldritt, of Frome; Mrs. D. Mc-Kellar and daughters Jean, Tenna and Kate, of Port Huron, and Kate McDonald, of Port Huron.

MELROD-DAMON.

Married, at Melvin, Mich., Nov. 8, '99, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John McLeod, the brides parents, Rev. Wm.
Coulter assisted by Rev. W. Smith officiating. Mr. Christopher Damon, of Omard, Mich., and Miss Nora McLeod, of Melvin. The ceremony was performed in the presence of over one hundred invited guests. The bride wore for the occasion a very beautiful and becoming bridal attire, and the groom was clothed in regulation black.
The occasion was a very happy one, the festivities continuing until late in the night. A room assigned for that purpose was literally filled with valuable presents, one of these being a purple lined with gold. The newly wedded pair expect to make their home in Mt. Clemens, Mich.

ROBINSON-HERRON.

In a letter received from Frank Robinson, of Rochester, Mich., a dollar is enclosed for The Expositor and the following item which will be of interest to our readers: Married, on Wednesday, October 24, Miss Etta Robinson, of Rochester, Mich., to G. W. Herron, of St. Louis. Miss Robinson left her home on Tuesday meeting the groom in St. Louis where the ceremony was performed by Elder Cunningham. The Expositor with other friends will unite in congratulating the happy couple.

YOUNG-RECTOR.

Married, at the M. E. parsonage, by Rev. J. A. Rowe, on Wednesday, Nov.
8, 1899, Mr. Eli N. Rector, of Speaker, and Miss Kate Young, of Fremont.
The Expositor joins their many friends in wishing them a happy life.

Church Items.

A good sized congregation greeted Mrs. Rennie at the F. M. church last Sunday evening.

Please watch the M. P. church bell for S. S. and other services. Card will be corrected next week.

St. Clair County S. S. Convention is in session at Port Huron to-day. Several delegates from Yale are there.

Union Thanksgiving services have been arranged for by the pastors of Yale. Rev. J. B. Keith is appointed to preach the sermon.

The fondness of a church for the new minister makes us think of a man who said that when he was first married he loved his wife well enough to eat her up—and ever since he wished he had done so.

Evangelist Humphrey is conducting revival services in the Christian church this week. Two have received the hand of fellowship. Will continue every night. Sunday Topics: Morning, The Treasures of Earth and Heaven. Evening, How to Read and Understand the Bible.

Rev. Wm. Sidebotham, of Spring Lake, Mich., occupied the Presbyterian pulpit for the past two Sundays. The congregation were so satisfied with his services that a unanimous call has been extended him to take the pastorate.
He has not yet signified his acceptance positively, but the probabilities are that he will do so. If so, he will move his family to Yale as soon as a suitable residence can be secured.
